Buildings give their best deals to whoever fills a floor. aptapt lets renters commit as a group, so the leasing office sees ten signatures instead of one, and the discount goes to all of you.

Two ways to reach a leasing office

The manager is on aptapt

Three committed renters
can trigger an invitation.
The manager posts an offer.

The group brings the manager

Renters set a group ask.
The manager can accept,
counter or decline.

Members vote on counters. The leasing office can track reservation and signing progress.

A focused Madison pilot

Pilot proposal

One leasing partner.

One building.

One group deal.

Business model hypothesis
